

Indiana's telephone privacy law has brought peace to many citizens. Dont try to fix something when it isnt broken just to appease a corporation who holds no rights to invade my privacy. If I pay for the service I should be able to enjoy it.